Star burst

YOU go ga ga over his bare chest and sexy mane. He can bowl you over by his sheer presence. That's just what Salman Khan did when he arrived at JW Marriott on Wednesday night, after making his fans wait for more than two hours.

The entire star cast of Jaan-e-mann, including Akshay Kumar and Preity Zinta, was also present at the programme, organised by UFO Moviez, the digital distributor of the film. "Watch Jaan-e-mann. But also watch Don. That's also rocking," joked Khan in his cool-dude style.

While Kumar drew his share of eyeballs as he accompanied Khan on stage, Zinta made a late entry, much after midnight. Govinda surprised everyone as he emerged on the dias to wish luck to the cast and crew. Producer Sajid Nadiadwala, director Shirish Kunder with wife and choreographer Farah Khan, Malaika Arora Khan, Fardeen Khan and wife Natasha, Chunkey Pandey, Gulshan Grover and Deputy Chief Minister RR Patil—there were celebrities enough, though the stars shone very late.
